

WALK ON WATER

"... Jesus called out to them, saying, "Courage! It is I! Do not be afraid." It was Peter who answered, "Lord," he said, "if it is you, tell me to come to you across the water." "Come," said Jesus. Then Peter got out of the boat and started walking toward Jesus across the water, but as soon as he felt the force of the wind, he took fright and began to sink. "Lord! Save me!" he cried. Jesus put out his hand at once and held him." (Matt 14:27-31)

There is a resilience in the human heart that borders on mystery. We have the power to rise, to encourage, to lead, to dare. It is just such a mood that walking on water demands. If you are bold enough to risk the uncertainty of the waves I invite you to consider such a walk possible.

Think about what you are most afraid of at this moment in your life. Then come! Get out of the boat. Walk on the water with me.

Come, walk on the water with me!
I'm in the mood for impossible things!
Take out your heart of courage,
A lamp amid your fears

And walk on the water with me.
Let's touch everything we see and change it to hope
Our Hearts let's change to flesh
(Ezekiel 36:26)

No more stones of apathy for us!
Let's look at everything that could be
Believing it will be
If we dare to walk on water
Scared and hopeful.

Come, walk on the water with me!
Let's wrap our fears in hope.
Across these waters we must go
Our lamps of courage high

Sacred and hopeful we will go.
At the beginning of this water journey
We'll be careful
But not too careful.
Being too careful is for the very scared.
The Kingdom of heaven is not found in being overly cautious
But in taking chances.

Come, walk on the water with me!
Hold high your lamp of courage
Put all your doubts away
Let's take a chance on staying up.

Come, walk on the water with me!
I'm in the mood for impossible things.
I feel scared because it's impossible
I feel hopeful because it's not impossible
(Mark 9:24)

So, scared and hopeful we will walk.
Come!
Walk on the water with me
